Recognition at Koforidua Technical University	Koforidua Technical University fully recognises the ECTS of students who go for the exchange program. The credits they obtain abroad is incorporated in their transcripts when they come back since they go for a whole semester. These students join their colleagues to complete the remaining semesters without having any missed credits or trails. For the recognition the students have to fill in the Application “Transfer of external examination results” and hand in the signed application to the coordinator Prof. Dr. Clement Nyamekye. The recognition by the coordinator is oriented toward the European Credit Transfer and Accumulation System.
