

International Winter School

for Master- and Doctoral Students

Comparative Studies in Adult and Lifelong Learning

February 3 - 12, 2016
in Würzburg/Bavaria, Germany

About the Programme

- Basic concepts: „politics, policies, strategies for adult and lifelong learning“
- Levels of analysis: „mega, meso, macro and micro“
- European policy in adult and lifelong learning: from 2000 till today
- Field visits to local and regional institutions of adult and continuing education
- Comparative research in adult education and lifelong learning

Comparative Group Work on

- UNESCO's policy in adult education and national implementations
- Work-related teaching and learning methods in higher education
- Learning cities, learning regions and learning communities
- Time in adult learning - resources for lifelong learning
- Reflective practices in adult and lifelong learning
- Competence in informal, non-formal and vocational education
- Professionalisation strategies in adult education

Cultural Programme

- Guided city tour in Würzburg
- Würzburg Residence Palace
- Franconia evening in Würzburg
- City tour to Nürnberg

The deadline for registration is 31st October 2015.

For non-European students the deadline is 30th September 2015 (Schengen-Visa).

www.lifelonglearning.uni-wuerzburg.de

Photos: University of Würzburg

